See attached. It's still rough and I'm wondering if there is a way to distill it down further since I think it may still be a bit long to expect someone at the AA level to read through. Any suggestions others have are welcome!

Hi Allison,

Thanks for emailing the "three things memo" that appears accurate to me. Have you completed Attachment 3) Synopsis of Final Findings yet? If so, can I see that document?

Cheers,

Jayne

All--

As promised, please see attached for tech team review. Your comments are appreciated before we provide to mngt/legal team (once they are done reviewing the RtC and Decision Document):

1. Draft FRN: updated based on Dec. version
2. Draft cover letter to state informing them of our decision
3. Draft rollout plan: updated based on Dec. version. Please confirm the key players and their contact info for your agency are still accurate. You'll note that I added a few new Q&As in anticipation of some questions we may receive based on questions we heard during the December proposed release or common comments received. The new Q&As or substantially modified ones are highlighted in pink to help focus your review.

As an FYI, I also included a draft "Three Things" briefing memo NOAA uses for our leadership. It's a very set format and length (3 pg. max). Feel free to steal language, as appropriate, for any EPA briefing documents you may need to develop.

Thanks,

Allison
